

May 05, 2017 5:00 a.m. UPDATED 3 DAYS AGO

21 Southeast Michigan small businesses recognized as companies to watch in 2017

By TYLER CLIFFORD

Entrepreneurship

Photo by Drew Mason/Michigan Economic Development Corp.

The 13th Annual Michigan Celebrates Small Business awards dinner Thursday recognized more than 20 Southeast Michigan businesses as part of its 2017 Michigan 50 Companies to Watch.

More than 20 Southeast Michigan small businesses were recognized a part of the 2017 Michigan 50 Companies to Watch at the 13th Annual Michigan Celebrates Small Business awards dinner Thursday.

More than 60 businesses were honored at the event, celebrating the contributions of small businesses to the state. Business that made the list of companies to watch are privately held, second-stage companies

The following Southeast Michigan companies were honored:

- Air and Liquid Systems Inc., Rochester Hills
- Ambassador Software, Royal Oak
- Brown Iron Brewhouse, Washington
- Continuity Programs Inc., Walled Lake
- Dataspeed Inc., Rochester Hills
- Decypher Corp., Berkley
- Drought, Royal Oak
- Environmental Testing and Consulting Inc., Romulus
- Goldner Walsh Garden & Home, Pontiac
- inFORM Studio PC, Northville
- J Keller Properties LLC, Ann Arbor
- K-Tec Systems Inc., Farmington Hills
- Love & Buttercream LLC, Royal Oak
- McCreadie Group Inc., Ann Arbor
- Motor City Carpet & Flooring, Warren
- OneStream Software LLC, Rochester
- RBV Contracting Inc., Detroit
- Sandalwood Engineering & Ergonomics, Livonia
- Torrent Consulting LLC, Ann Arbor
- United Technical Inc., Whitmore Lake
- Youngtronics LLC, Wixom

Visit michigancelebrates.biz for the complete list of companies to watch and other honorees.